Cast of Characters:

3 Males /3 Females/ 1 Male or Female

Hostess Attractive mature female. Owner of The Proud Annie, able to "improv" situations. Meets, greets, introduces and interacts with all actors, able to portray excitement, fretfulness and disappointment. Think Bette Midler or Mae West

Leo J. Turnbull, PhD older male 45-70, well dressed graduate of Loyola and Harvard with a doctorate in sociology. Married to Patricia Campbell-Turnbull, has adult children. Is in the midst of his third tour of motivational positive thinking seminars, "I Think, I Can!" rumors of a troubled marriage loom. 1st trip that he is not accompanied by his wife. Resides in Chicago. Drinks a lot.

Margaret Eileen Schwartz Any age F. college grad. major in business. Unmarried, shy, idolizes Dr. Turnbull, never gets angry with him. Also lives in Chicago, worked with him five years. Gets paid $17.5k

Monica Irene Peters F / 40-50 aka "Mo-Mo" calls Leo "Lee-Lee" working on her GED Left Butte, Montana to pursue a career as at a local Kroger store. After a week at the checkout, was told this job was not for her. Since then, worked in shoe rental at a bowling alley counter girl at Taco Bell and edged lawns for a landscaper and a receptionist for the JC TN Aluminum Siding Co where she met Dr. Turnbull giving a seminar. He hired her as a motivational associate paying her $150k per year, supplies a three-bedroom condo on Michigan Avenue and a new Porsche with 15 major credit cards. Think "Goldie Hawn"

Patricia Anne Campbell-Turnbull Mature Female /45-70 Wife of Dr Leo, professional homemaker of financial means dividing her time doing charity work, floral arrangements, Chairwoman of "Art in the Chicago's Loop" a "Celebration of Graffiti" cares for the family Schnauzer, "Fuzzy-Woozy" Patricia takes "nothing" from "nobody" She is no pansy. Self-assured and confident attitudes.

Marco Virelli

Adult Male / grew up in New York City, poor but proud. Competed in cheer-leader tryouts in high school, but was persuaded by a wise counselor to dash the dreams as a cheer-leader and pursue a career as a singer. Growing up in a two-bedroom apartment with his 12 siblings he felt prepared to enter the cutthroat world of karaoke, later attended Juilliard Institute. Trained as an operatic baritone, but found his niche in the sing-along genre. Tours regularly and can be found in nightclubs, lounges and bowling alleys across the country. First trip to TN and he's thinking of going "Country" making it big in "Music City, USA" Yep! Just as soon as he leaves Jonesborough, Nick or Nicki Hardy Either M /F If female, must be able to play aggressive lesbian role. Private Detective. After High School, dropped out of college to pursue a career in detection. A field that has been fascinating since reading "Hardy Boys" at age eight. Writes memoirs, watches '30s mystery movies. Still searching for the right "Doll" that will take the breath away, but leave the checkbook alone Think Humphrey Bogart.
